

YOUR RÉSUMÉ

There is no one way to write a Résumé, and no one should write it for you. The job seeker is the expert on him/herself and is, therefore, best qualified to present unique strengths and capabilities for specific career objectives.

PURPOSE

- Provides employers with information about your abilities and experiences so they can assess your potential for a successful job match.
- Serves as a marketing document designed to catch the interest of an employer.
- Creates a clear and critical first impression since as little as 15 seconds may be devoted to looking at each Résumé.
- Shows focus on the needs of the employer, not on the needs and desires of the job seeker.
- Space is critical; carefully evaluate each item and its relationship to your career objective.

PREPARATION

- Take a complete inventory of your resources. For example; higher education and training, work experiences, activities and special skills (particular emphasis should be placed upon achievements, especially as they relate to education and work experience).
 Technical aspects:
- Format—structure component or how the information is organized and presented.
- Content—information component or what is presented.

FORMAT

There are three styles of format that are most commonly used for Résumés: chronological, functional, and combination. Choose the format that you believe will best market your abilities in conjunction with your past experiences, unique skills, and immediate career objective.

CHRONOLOGICAL

Used for an individual who is staying in the same field, has training and/or experience. Consistent with the objective, has relevant job titles, or is applying for a job in a highly traditional field. Most effective for the majority of new college graduates.

FUNCTIONAL

Emphasizes skill areas. Most helpful for people who are changing careers, re-entering the job market, applying for positions for which their training and/or experience does not directly qualify them, or whose background does not emphasize their abilities for the job. Skills categories should be ranked in order to support the career objective.

COMBINATION

Hybrid of a chronological and functional Résumé. The skills or qualifications section identifies your skills in relation to your job or career objective. This format grabs the reader's attention early.

DESIGNING THE PERFECT RÉSUMÉ

Why Write a Résumé?

- I am looking for a new job.
- I want to summarize my work-related experiences.
- I have no idea. Someone told me I should write a Résumé.
- I am applying to Graduate school.

Basic Parts of a Résumé:

- The Heading
- Education
- Experience
- Other Categories

The Heading:

- Name
- Permanent addresses
- Phone number, with a professional voice mail message
- E-mail address (JohnJones@yahoo.com, not Hunkofman@yahoo.com)
- You can use the school e-mail address: JaneDoe@ lionmail.sagu.edu
- You need not write "Résumé" at the top

Experience:

- Does not have to be paid
- Show the potential employer you have learned the skills necessary for the job
- Internships are key
- Relevant experience = edge on competition
- Use bullets for skills/accomplishments
- Specific measurable results
- Can be logical rather than chronological
- Include all experiences, but expand more on relevant experiences

Education:

- Name of University
- · Name of degree
- List either the degree or the University first, whichever sells better
- Date received
- Major
- · Very useful if you have limited work experience
- List GPA if 3.0 or above

Other Categories:

- Skills
- Certifications/Professional Memberships
- Honors & Awards
- · Relevant to education or job
- Campus Activities
- Extracurricular Activities
- Leadership Development
- Personal Information only on ministerial résumés

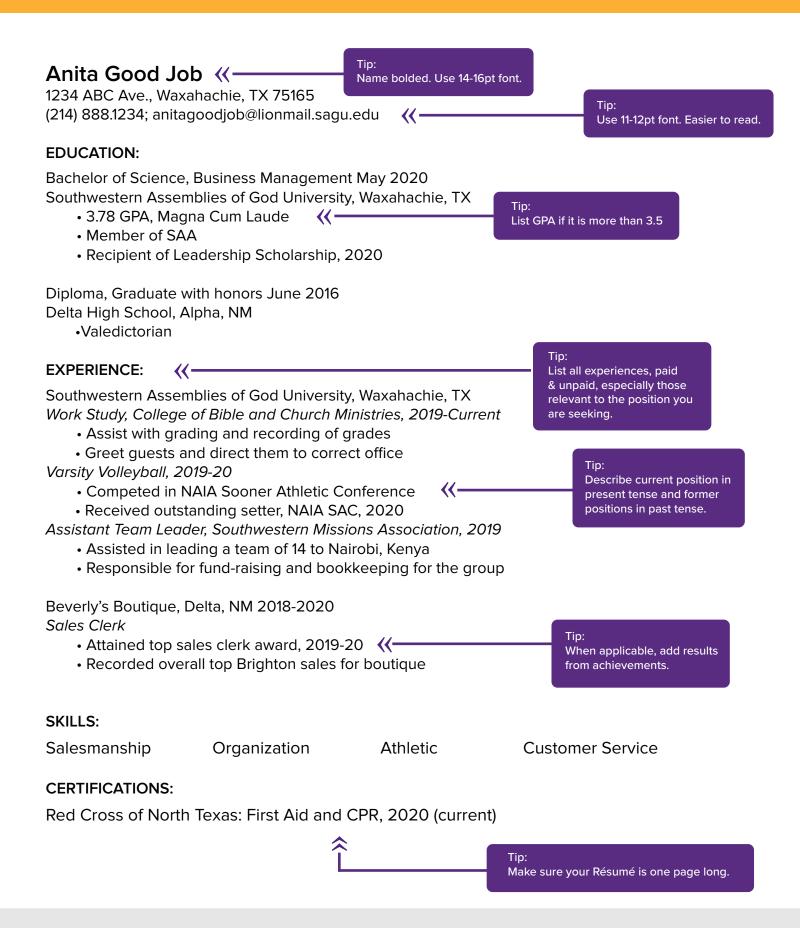

Résumé Tips:

- Pay careful attention to spelling, punctuation, grammar and style
- Proofread your résumé carefully, and have others proofread as well
- · Organize information in a logical fashion
- Keep descriptions clear and to the point
- If you are a new graduate, confine your information to one page
- Use a simple, easy-to-read font 11-12 point
- · Use good-quality white or off-white bond paper
- Include as much work experience as possible, even if it doesn't obviously relate to the job
- Tailor your information to the job you're seeking
- Do not use a template
- · Ask for help at your Career Development Office

Dear Mr./Ms. Last Name,

Dear Reader:

First paragraph: State the reason for writing the letter, specify the position or type of work for which you are applying, and indicate from which resource (Career Development, friend, news media, etc.) you learned of the opening or received his/her/their name.

Second paragraph: State why you are interested in the position, the company, its products or services, and above all, indicate what you can do for the employer. If you are completing a degree or are a recent graduate, explain how your academic background qualifies you for the position. If you have had some practical work experience, point out specific achievements or unique qualifications. Highlight your strengths and achievements and state how they suit you for the position. Provide details and explanations that are not found on your resume'. Indicate what you can do for the organization. Do not inquire about what the organization can do for you.

Third paragraph: Refer the reader to the enclosed resume' or employment application that summarizes your qualifications, training, experiences, and the like. Assure the employer that you are the person for the job.

Final paragraph: Initiate the next follow-up whenever possible. (i.e., "I will call you...,", "I will be in your city on a certain date and would like to meet..."). Indicate your flexibility, repeat a phone number and offer any assistance necessary to help obtain a speedy response.

Sincerely yours,
